There will be a Gala Dinner on Thursday evening for which you may like to bring something special to wear.

TRAVEL TO OXFORD

Cars & Parking

We would generally advise you not to bring your car to Oxford due to the fact that many of the city centre streets are now closed to traffic and parking is very difficult. There are no parking facilities at the college itself and long-term secure parking facilities in Oxford are limited. Exeter is in the centre of the city, however, and is highly accessible – there is a taxi service from the mainline railway station, as well as buses from the train station to Gloucester Green bus station in the centre of the city, a short walk from the college. In addition, coaches from London, Gatwick and Heathrow airports all stop on the High Street quite close to the college (see below under ‘Coaches’).

If you do bring your car, it is possible to park briefly in front of the college on Turl Street to unload luggage before driving off to find a parking space. Access to Turl Street is via Broad Street only.

Trains

The railway station is just off Botley Road on the west side of the city, about 15 minutes walk from Exeter (or 5 minutes by bus to the city centre, then a walk of 5 minutes to Exeter; or 5-10 minutes by taxi direct from the station to the college). Trains run to and from London Paddington and Oxford regularly every day, with a typical journey time of approximately one hour. Direct trains also run regularly between Oxford and Reading, Banbury, Stratford-upon-Avon, Worcester, Birmingham New Street and Southampton, with less frequent services from Brighton, Liverpool, Manchester and Scotland.

The UK train enquiries telephone number is 08457 484950 for information about train services or you can check the National Rail Enquiries website www.nationalrail.co.uk. A full taxi and bus service is available as you exit the station, with frequent buses to the city centre.

Coaches

The nearest stop to Exeter College for all the coach services from London, Gatwick, Heathrow, Luton Airport and Stansted Airport listed below is on the High Street by Queens Lane and the Examination Schools (ask the driver for the ‘Queens Lane’ stop) and all coaches will stop here before finally terminating at the central Bus Station at Gloucester Green in the city centre.

From London – There are two regular coach services to and from London, both of which terminate at Gloucester Green Bus Station in the centre of Oxford. The journey takes about 1 hour 40 minutes from London.

The first is the Oxford Express (X90) operated by the Oxford Bus Company, which runs at 15-20 minute intervals from Victoria Coach Station and again at 15-20 minute intervals from Oxford back to London (on both Fridays and Sundays). The other is the Oxford Tube service, which runs approximately every 15-20 minutes from Buckingham Palace Road near Victoria Station.

From Gatwick Airport – Either take the Oxford Bus Company's The Airline Bus (X80) which leaves the North and South terminals every hour during the day, or take the train from Gatwick to Reading (which leaves every hour and from where there are frequent trains to Oxford). Both bus and train journeys take between 2 and 2½ hours.

From Heathrow Airport – take the Oxford Bus Company's The Airline Bus. Buses leave Terminal 5 and the Central Bus Station (serving Terminals 1-4) every 30 minutes during the day. The journey takes approximately 1 hour 30 minutes.

Usually, there is no need to book a coach seat in advance, you can simply board the bus and pay the driver. However, it is advisable to check the journey details with the relevant company before you travel, plus it is possible to buy advance tickets online.

From Luton Airport

Catch the National Express Service 737 to Oxford, which runs 8 times a day with an approximate journey time of 1 hour 50 minutes. Coaches leave from Bay 4, 5 or 6 at the front of the terminal building and tickets are available at the nearby Onward Travel Centre. Tickets can also be booked online in advance at:

www.london-luton.co.uk/en/content/2/123/by-bus---coach.html

From Stansted Airport

Catch the National Express Service 737 to Oxford, which runs approximately every 2 hours. The journey takes a minimum of 3 hours and tickets can be purchased at the ticket office in the Arrivals area of the airport, at the coach station or when you board the coach.
