

Conditions of Enrolment for Day Seminar Participants

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

Please note that in order to study at the Faculty, you must be aged 18 years or over. There is no upper age limit.

Course Cancellation and Travel Insurance

No refunds will be paid on cancellations. In the very unlikely event that one of the Seminars attracts too few students for us to run it successfully, the Faculty of Astrological Studies reserves the right to cancel that particular Seminar and accepts no responsibility for reimbursement of travel costs although Seminar fees will be refunded in full. If you are travelling from outside the UK and booking a flight in advance, you are therefore advised to obtain travel insurance which covers you for cancellation.

English as a Second Language

Students will need a good standard of reading and speaking English to be able to take a Seminar. If you are unsure of this you can check your language on the following university access website: <http://www.open.ac.uk/courses/do-it/english-skills>.

As a general guide, your English language skills should be equivalent to one of the following qualifications:

G.C.S.E. English Language Grades A- C
IELTS Levels 5.5-6.5
TEOFL 87-109
Cambridge First Certificate in English

Level of Study

The Day Seminars are open to both Faculty and non-Faculty students. Many of the seminars are suitable for students who understand the basic components of the natal chart (planets, signs and houses), although some require an ability to read a natal chart together with an appreciation of forecasting techniques. The criteria for each Seminar is clearly described on the webpage, <http://www.astrology.org.uk/events-calendar/day-seminars/>, and it is the participant's responsibility to make sure they have the appropriate knowledge to make their participation in a seminar valuable.

Right to Cease Tuition

In the unlikely event that the tutor considers it to be in the best interest of a student, the Seminar participants or the school to cease to continue to provide tuition to a student, the student may be asked to leave the Seminar.

Student Feedback Sheet

We would be grateful if you would take a few minutes to complete the Student Feedback Form and either give it to your tutor or email it to the Day Seminar Organiser, Stevi Gaydon, at stevi.gaydon@astrology.org.uk. This will help us to continue to improve our material and method of tuition, with a view to ensuring that your studies are as fruitful and enjoyable as possible.

For any queries about your studies, you can write to the Head Tutor, Cat Cox, at head.tutor@astrology.org.uk
