Our Venue - Exeter College, Oxford

Exeter is one of Oxford's oldest colleges, founded in 1314 and located at the heart of the city amongst its historic university buildings. It is also one of the most attractive, with buildings ranging from the early 15th century Palmer Tower to the magnificent Gothic chapel and Jacobean dining hall. Within its walls are peaceful gardens ideal for quiet contemplation and the main quadrangle is one of the most beautiful in Oxford.

Many famous people studied here, including J.R.R. Tolkien and the pre-Raphaelite artists William Morris and Edward Burne-Jones, some of whose original work is on display in the college. Philip Pullman, author of the magical trilogy His Dark Materials, was also an undergraduate here, basing his fictitious Jordan College on Exeter.

Weekend Courses

Courses run from Friday 18th August at 5pm until Sunday 20th August at 1pm

The Art and Practice of Complete Horoscope Interpretation

Michael Lutin

Many people go from one astrologer to another, spending time, energy and money listening to one opinion after another. We should indeed explore all aspects of the discipline – but what are clients really looking for? The missing component is the intimacy of contact that answers questions clients don't even know they have. In a safe environment clients are free to be seen, known and validated on a level so often lacking in horoscope sessions despite the good intentions of the practitioner.

This workshop distills into one weekend the essence of a three-year course of study developed by Michael over the years. It will unite clear definitions of planetary configurations and cycles while encouraging you to use your own creativity and develop your own definitions. It will also describe the psychological and metaphysical elements necessary to clarify the effects of the planets and bodies beyond. We will identify the true rulers of a horoscope through use of dispositors, planetary pictures and repetitive patterns. We want to create an experience from which clients can take away something of lifelong useful value.

Most of all we must combine psychological awareness, sensitivity and expertise along with a truly committed spiritually-aware attitude. Such an enriching method will help answer those questions clients don't even know they are asking, while forming a powerful, healing alliance between astrologer and client.

Dragon's Head & Dragon's Tail ~ The Nodal Axis

Melanie Reinhart

Eclipses always occur when the Sun and Moon are near the Nodal Axis, as they are now. The Nodal points are not physical objects, but represent the intersection of the pathways of the Sun, Moon and Earth; their symbolism refers us to the balancing, indeed the incarnating, of the interplay between the Primary Lights, the Luminaries. Here we find our relationship to the people, places and events which shape our destiny, and here we confront the 'dragons' of the 'Three Poisons' described in Buddhism: craving, aversion and ignorance. During this weekend, we explore the astronomy and mythology of the Nodes and of Eclipses, and discover new ways of considering them in our own horoscope. A guided imagery exercise will be included.

Five Day Course: Astrology in Action

Astrology in Action offers three simultaneous tracks on different themes. You can follow one track throughout the five days, or select sessions from all three. Whether your knowledge of astrology is basic or advanced, the course provides an opportunity to extend your skills and deepen your understanding of astrology.

Day delegate places (either residential or non-residential) are available for the Astrology in Action course – you can book for up to three days on the day delegate option.

Course credits are available for attendance at some of the Astrology in Action sessions – see inside back page for details.

Track 1: Global Vision: Living in Interesting Times

Darby Costello, Cat Cox, Bernard Eccles, Rob Hand, Michael Lutin and Melanie Reinhart

This track is about using astrology to understand the current times. We will look at the cycles of Uranus-Neptune, Uranus-Pluto and Neptune-Pluto, the meaning of eclipses, the Saturn-Chiron square, Uranus in Taurus, identifying our strengths and finding our vocation, the current state of the world (including Brexit and the US election), Pluto in the collective psyche, and tools for the individual in navigating the uncertainties of our age. We will also look at what happens when a planet is first discovered and how its image emerges into collective consciousness. The total Solar Eclipse in Leo on Monday 21st August will be honoured, with sessions on eclipses in traditional and contemporary practice.

Track 2: Techniques for Astrological Practice

Cat Cox, Rob Hand, Michael Lutin, Melanie Reinhart, Glòria Roca and Carole Taylor

This track offers a range of techniques and ideas to apply in chart work, including electional astrology, composite charts, the astrology of mothers and daughters, the graphic ephemeris, the consultation chart, techniques from traditional astrology, working with prediction and forecasting, and the thorny (and philosophical) issue of choosing a house system. The sessions here are designed to appeal equally to working astrologers and to those who are simply following their own chart.

Track 3: Calling Down the Heavens: Astrology, Space and Number

Cat Cox, Bernard Eccles, Robin Heath, Glòria Roca and Carole Taylor

Here we encounter space and number as expressions of the sacred within an ordered cosmos – from reflections of the zodiac and planetary cycles in ancient monuments and temples, to the elegant geometries of the birth chart. The track will cover a wide range of material: ancient ideas about harmony and ritual spaces; Pythagoras and Plato; Kepler's planetary harmonics; how space and time are measured; the geometry of the zodiac and of the planets, including Sun-Moon cycles and the rhythms of life on earth; and the phenomenon of landscape zodiacs. There will also be sessions on minor aspects and harmonic charts; astro-cartography, geodetics; and the chart itself as ritual space.

Five Day Courses: Chart Interpretation

Courses run from Sunday 20th August at 5pm until Friday 25th August at 1pm

These two chart interpretation courses are designed to build skills and confidence in chart interpretation in a supported learning environment. Each course is self-contained and develops through the week, so you are required to attend the whole course if you enrol. Early booking is strongly recommended as places are limited.

Natal Chart Interpretation: Putting the Pieces Together

Kim Farley and Stevi Gaydon

[Module 3: Foundation Course – attracts 20 credits towards the Faculty's Certificate]

This course is designed to help you bring together the basic building blocks of the chart – planets, signs, houses, angles and aspects – into an integrated chart interpretation. You will be working with your own and others' charts and you will gain practice and confidence in identifying the main themes in a chart. You will also explore the philosophy of astrology and its place in the modern world. This course is suitable for anyone who has a working knowledge of the planets, signs, houses and aspects equivalent to Modules 1 and 2 of the Faculty's Foundation Course. Please see www.astrology.org.uk/courses-overview/foundation-course for information about the contents of Modules 1 and 2.

Intermediate Interpretation: Integrating the Forecasting

Sue Farebrother & Deborah Morgan

[Module 6: Diploma Course – attracts 20 credits towards the Faculty's Diploma]

This course has a two-fold aim: firstly, to help you develop your chart interpretation skills at intermediate level and secondly, to learn how to weave the main forecasting techniques into an integrated picture. Throughout the course, the emphasis will be on how we can put astrological material across to a client in a way which is sensitive and non-judgemental, but which also goes deeply into the chart's potentials and challenges. Transits, solar returns, secondary progressions and solar arc directions will be incorporated in this course and you will be expected to have a basic working knowledge of these forecasting techniques as well as a basic grasp of natal chart interpretation.

See www.astrology.org.uk/courses-overview/diploma-level-1 for information about the contents of Modules 4 and 5 (forecasting techniques).

New to Summer School! An Introduction to Astrology

Lindsay Gladstone and Carole Taylor

Thursday 24th August

This self-contained day course is aimed at complete beginners and for anyone wishing to brush up on the very basics. We will look briefly at astrology's unique system of celestial correspondences and symbolic thinking, and then go on to explore the essential components of a birth chart: the planets, zodiac signs and houses. We will then look at how planets form inter-relationships between each other via the aspects, to create the inner dynamics of the psyche. A copy of your birth chart will be provided.

The Faculty of Astrological Studies

Raising the standard of astrological education since 1948

DARBY COSTELLO
Hon DFAstroIs has been an astrologer for more than half her life and is engaged in many layers of the astrological community. She has taught at the CPA since 1988 and the Faculty since the early 1990s, and lectures and teaches internationally. She has written several books including 'The Astrological Moon', 'Water and Fire' and 'Earth and Air'. Darby was awarded the MA in Cultural Astronomy and Astrology at Bath Spa University in 2006. Her consultation practice is at the heart of her working life as an astrologer.

CAT COX
DFAstroIs is the Faculty President and Head Tutor.

She began studying astrology in London in the 1980s and gained the Faculty Diploma in 1996. She has studied horary astrology with John Frawley and was awarded the MA in Cultural Astronomy and Astrology from Bath Spa University in 2007, after which she returned to the Faculty to teach. She is interested in magical and experiential approaches to astrology and in the spiritual dimensions of astrological practice.

BERNARD ECCLES
Hon DFAstroIs has been teaching and writing about astrology for over 30 years, and has won numerous awards, as well as twice being President of the Astrological Lodge of London. His astrology draws on both the ancient world and more contemporary techniques, but is always linked to the visible sky and the cycles of time and season. Astrology is still both art and craft, he insists – a thing of joyous revelation and insight rather than mere computation.

SUE FAREBROTHER
DFAstroIs has been a professional astrologer and tarot consultant for more than 25 years in private practice in London, UK. She teaches astrology at Foundation and Intermediate level for the Faculty. She also teaches courses in the tarot in London. Sue gained a distinction for her Cultural Astronomy and Astrology MA dissertation in 2007. Her beginners book, 'Astrology Decoded', was published in 2013 to critical acclaim and is a Faculty recommended book. She is currently working on her next astrology book for Rider.

KIM FARLEY
DFAstroIs discovered astrology at her Saturn Return and has been a part of the Faculty since the early 1990s. She feels immensely lucky to have taught generations of London classes alongside her home-based private practice and tutoring beginners has always held a special place in her heart. In her view, astrology represents the richest possible use of imagination and creative thinking. Kim is also an independent funeral celebrant.

STEVI GAYDON
DFAstroIs is a tutor with the Faculty. She has run an astrological practice from her home in Northamptonshire since gaining her Diploma in 2010 and her work with clients is informed by her background in life coaching and training interpersonal skills. Stevi is the Faculty's Vice President and Advertising Manager. She has an MA in Cultural Astronomy and Astrology from the University of Wales.

LINDSAY GLADSTONE
DFAstrols

Inspired by a heartfelt connection to the starry heavens Lindsay's passion for astrology gained her the Faculty Diploma in 2012 and the M.A. in Myth, Cosmology and the Sacred from Canterbury Christ Church University in 2015. Fascinated by the encapsulation of celestial grace encoded within the symbolism of astrology her particular interests focus on the creation myths and divine illumination. She has an astrological practice in West Sussex and runs astrology courses and lectures.

ROB HAND Hon

is a Faculty Patron and one of astrology's leading lights. He has written many classic texts – including 'Planets in Transit', 'Planets in Composite', 'Planets in Youth', 'Essays on Astrology' and 'Night and Day' – and is well known for his research work in ancient and medieval astrology and for establishing ARHAT, a formal archive, library and publishing company to continue his lifelong work in astrology. Rob holds a PhD in medieval history.

ROBIN HEATH is a graduate of UCNW, Bangor, and started his career as a research and development engineer prior to becoming a senior lecturer in mathematics and engineering. Since 1990 he has been seeking out evidence for the prehistoric science embedded within the megalithic monuments in Britain, Ireland and France. In 1993 Robin founded Megalithic Tours and has written ten books revealing evidence of high culture in the astronomy, geometry and metrology of ancient artifacts. For forty years, Robin has been a practising astrologer. During the mid-1990s, he was editor of the Astrological Journal.

holds a BA from Trinity College and attended Harvard and Yale. He holds Level 4 NCGR and was a member of the International Society for Communicative Psychoanalysis and Psychotherapy, studying under Robert Langs. He is a member of the National Press Club of Washington DC and author of five books including 'Sunshines: The Astrology of Being Happy'; 'Saturn Signs: The Astrology of Stress, Fear & Anxiety'; 'Made in Heaven'; and 'Childhood Rising: The Astrology of Your Mother, Father & You'.

DEBORAH MORGAN

DFAstrols is a Faculty distance learning tutor. She runs her own astrological practice in Nottingham and specialises in astrology for personal and business development. She is keenly interested in the Western Mystery Tradition, mythology and their links with astrology. She runs online and real-world workshops that focus on the solar year and lunar cycles, attuning participants to the natural rhythms of the seasons, land and sky.

MELANIE REINHART DFAstrols

is a patron of the Faculty, and a prize-winning Diploma-holder. Since 1959 astrology has been central to her life, and she has been a professional astrologer since 1975, offering consultations, writing and teaching in the UK and abroad. She is known for her original research on new celestial objects. Books include: 'Chiron and the Healing Journey', 'Saturn, Chiron and the Centaurs', 'Incarnation', and 'Saturn: Time, Heritage and Substance'. Melanie has a special interest in meditative experience as a healing modality.

GLÒRIA ROCA
DFAstrols started to study astrology formally in 1991 with the Faculty.

She studied esoteric

astrology with Alan Oken and Hermetic Symbolism at the Centre d'Estudis de Simbologia de Barcelona. She obtained the Faculty's Certificate in 1993 and its Diploma in 2002. Gloria works as a teacher, consultant astrologer and Faculty tutor, combining this work with her astro-feng shui practice and research in her fields of interest: psychological astrology and local space techniques.

CAROLE TAYLOR
FFAstrols

is the Summer School Programme Co-ordinator and Director of Studies, responsible for the development of the Faculty's course material. Formerly the President and Head of the London Classes, she has been a Faculty Foundation and Diploma tutor for 17 years. Carole holds the MA (with distinction) in Myth, Cosmology and the Sacred from Canterbury Christ Church University. She teaches at Heaven and Earth Workshops in Bali, and runs an astrological practice in West Sussex.
